A public minded citizen . . . is an asset . . . to any community . . . Mr. Henry Page . . . certainly is . . . one of the . . . outstanding personalities . . . in our city . . . in that he has served us . . . in so many ways . . . he takes . . . a special interest . . . in high school students . . . and their activities . . . maybe the reason for this . . . lies in the fact that . . . he has his two children . . . Mr. Page . . . has furnished . . . band uniforms . . . for nearly . . . everyone . . . of our schools . . . DeVilbiss . . . is deeply grateful . . . to him . . . and tried to show . . . its appreciation . . . by dedicating the stadium . . . to him . . . Mr. Page is . . . a dignified man . . . over medium height . . . his hair . . . is dark . . . and slightly gray . . . at the temples . . . he is . . . nice to talk with . . . because he is so friendly . . . and willing . . . to cooperate . . . with all . . . who need . . . his help . . . the spirit . . . which he displays . . . should be encouraging . . . to many a high school student . . . he has gone so far . . . toward success . . . by persistently . . . following his ambitions . . .

Father in dairy . . . Dixon, Illinois . . . Dixon High School . . . one year to Business Administration School . . . Headed Ohio Dairy Co. . . at 24 . . . 1913 . . . Started in business for himself . . .

Mr. Page . . . originated in Dixon . . . a small town in Illinois . . . His first schooling . . . was obtained in a high school . . . in Dixon . . . He followed . . . in his father's footsteps . . . when he went . . . into the dairy business . . . He learned . . . the tricks . . . of the trade . . . by working in the dairy . . . of his father . . . Then . . . he went to . . . Business Administration School . . . in Chicago . . . for one year . . . at twenty-four . . . he started . . . working for . . . the Ohio Dairy Co. . . The independent Page Dairy . . . had its beginning . . . in 1913 . . . Though . . . he didn't . . . have the educational . . . opportunities . . . that we have today . . . he achieved his success . . .

Our deepest respect . . . goes to Mr. Page.

HENRY A. PAGE STADIUM

WITH funds provided by the C. W. A. and the F. E. R. A., DeVilbiss High School's football stadium was erected at an approximate cost of $30,000. Work was begun on the stadium in February, 1934, and the last bit of work was completed on September 12P 1934.

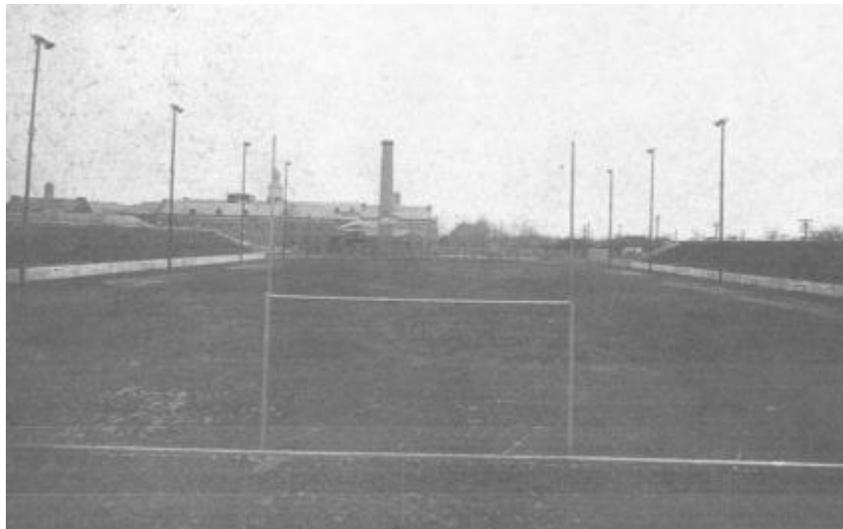

On the eve of September 14, 1934, before the start of the opening Point Place football game, the stadium was formally dedicated in an impressive ceremony at which Betty Hartman presided as Dedication Queen. The stadium is now called Henry A. Page Stadium in honor of Henry A. Page, one of Toledo's prominent business men.

Henry A. Page Stadium holds 7,769 people-2,907 people in the South Stands, 2,942 people in the North Stands, and 970 people in each of the two end bleachers. There are five light posts on each side of the football field which give light to the capacity of 80,000 watts,

The contract of Page Stadium was let to Watts-Suhrbier Co. which let contracts to the Kuhlman Builders Supplies Co., Art Iron and Wire Co., and the Toledo Cut Stone Co.

Colonel Shetler was in charge of the work when the C. W. A. was in force; Lt. Thompson held sway when work was being done by F. E. R. A. men.

Thomas A. DeVilbiss High School should be very proud indeed to have such a fine stadium as it now has in Henry A. Page Stadium.

; A supervisor attends to the care of the courts at all times and they are kept in good condition. Last fall a mixed doubles' tournament was held for all students in DeVilbiss in which
